APPENDIX
MEMBERS OF THE REAL ACCESS ALLIANCE

- The Building Owners and Managers Association, International ("BOMA International") is an international federation of 101 local associations. BOMA International's 17,000 members own or manage more than 8.5 billion square feet of downtown and suburban commercial properties and facilities in North America and abroad. The mission of BOMA International is to advance the performance of commercial real estate through advocacy, professional competency, standards and research.
- The Institute of Real Estate Management ("IREM") educates real estate managers, certifies the competence and professionalism of individuals and organizations engaged in real estate management, serves as an advocate on issues affecting the industry, and enhances and supports its members' professional competence so they can better identify and meet the needs of those who use their services. IREM was established in 1933 and has 10,000 members across the country.
- The International Council of Shopping Centers ("ICSC") is the trade association of the shopping center industry. Its 38,000 members in the United States, Canada, and more than 70 other countries represent owners, developers, retailers, lenders, and all others having a professional interest in the shopping center industry. ICSC's 34,000 United States members represent almost all of the 43,661 shopping centers in the United States.

- The Manufactured Housing Institute is the leading national trade association for manufactured housing. It represents all segments of the industry, including manufacturers, component suppliers, retailers, community owners and operators, state associations, and those financial institutions involved in the lending and insuring of manufactured homes.
- The National Apartment Association ("NAA") has been serving the apartment industry for 60 years. It is the largest industry-wide, nonprofit trade association devoted solely to the needs of the apartment industry. NAA represents approximately 27,600 rental housing professionals holding responsibility for more than 4.38 million apartment households nationwide.
- The National Association of Home Builders ("NAHB") is a federation of more than 800 state and local home builder associations nationwide, working to enhance the political climate for housing and for the building industry, and promoting policies that keep housing a national priority. NAHB's members are engaged in all aspects of real estate development, ownership, and management, and include owners and managers of apartment buildings, condominiums, cooperatives, and community associations. NAHB is comprised of over 203,000 members, who collectively employ over eight million Americans.

- The National Association of Industrial and Office Properties ("NAIOP") is the trade association for developers, owners, and investors in industrial, office, and related commercial real estate. NAIOP is comprised of over 9,500 members in 46 North American chapters and offers its members business and networking opportunities, education programs, research on trends and innovations, and strong legislative representation.
- The National Association of Real Estate Investment Trusts is the national trade association for real estate investment trusts (REITs) and publicly-traded real estate companies. Its members are REITs and other businesses that own, operate, and finance income-producing real estate, as well as those firms and individuals that advise, study and service those businesses.
- The National Association of Realtors ("NAR") is the nation's largest professional association, representing more than 720,000 members. Founded in 1908, the NAR is composed of residential and commercial realtors who are brokers, salespeople, property managers, appraisers, counselors and others engaged in all aspects of the real estate industry. The association works to preserve the free enterprise system and the right to own, buy, and sell real property.

- The National Multi-Housing Council ("NMHC") represents the interests of the larger and most prominent firms in the multi-family rental housing industry. NMHC's members are engaged in all aspects of the development and operation of rental housing, including the ownership, construction, finance, and management of such properties.
- The Real Estate Roundtable ("RER") provides Washington representation on national policy issues vital to commercial and income-producing real estate. RER addresses capital and credit, tax, environmental, technology and other investment-related issues. RER members are senior executives from more than 200 U.S. public and privately owned companies across all segments of the commercial real estate industry.
